If the mulligans at your event look like

Event revenues from the sale of mulligans are financial contributions, and require proper receipting pursuant to Treasury Regulations section 1.170A-13 of IRS Publication 1771, and the "Records to Keep" section of IRS Charitable Contribution Publication 526. Imagine what will happen to your contributor if they show the IRS a carnival ticket, instead of an authentic Mulligan® brand receipt For their charitable contribution.

Learn more and review our simple Return Policy at www.MulliganStore.com. Mulligan® brand is a registered trademark administered by Good-Heart Charity Brands, a Washington nonprofit corporation. Unauthorized use is a violation of applicable Federal laws. Each Mulligan® brand tax receipt conveys tax deductibility through compliant receipting as required under IRS regulations, product authentication through hologram technology, and unique serialization to facilitate IRS and taxing authority tracking to specific fundraising events. The benefiting nonprofit or fund is vetted and certified a compliant and valid tax exempt entity prior to the distribution of custom printed Mulligan® brand tax receipts. Because of these special characteristics, and to prevent public confusion and trademark dilution, the Mulligan® brand will be actively defended from infringement of the rights provided to Good-Heart Charity Brands (trademark administrator) and the Mulligan® brand trademark owner under 15 U.S.C. Section 1114, and those found to be willfully infringing upon the trademark owner's rights can be held liable for statutory damages as high as $150,000, as set forth in 17 U.S.C. Section 504(c)(2). Scan and email completed forms to mail@Good-Heart.org Fax 509-351-2300
